

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE first autumn meeting of the Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at 11 A. M. today, in Lee Camp Hall.

Members are urged to be present, as delegates are to be elected to the State convention, which will be held at Manassas, Va., in October.

At a called meeting of Petersburg Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held Monday in Camp Hall, Petersburg, the following convention delegates were elected: Mrs. W. F. Drewry, Mrs. R. T. Meade, Mrs. William L. McGill, Mrs. John H. Clai-borne, Misses Annie Mann and Ida Lowndes. Alternates chosen were: Mrs. Joseph Lawrence, Mrs. Pryor Jones, Mrs. Radford, Miss Hattie Ellensworth, Miss May Dewberry and Mrs. James McCreely.

Sponsor and Maid.

Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, Middlesex county, sister of Mrs. Andrew J. Montague, of this city, has been appointed sponsor for the First Virginia District, to the meeting of the Grand Camp, United Confederate Veterans, at Charlottesville, Va., October 29-31. Miss Louise Benson, grand-daughter of Mr. George W. Nelms, of Newport News, a Confederate veteran, and niece of Captain John Mayer, of Richmond, will be maid of honor to Mrs. Saunders.

Brilliant Social Function.

One of the most brilliant social functions of the season at South Hill, Va., was a reception and dance given recently by Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Yancey, in their home, on Mecklenburg Avenue, as a compliment to their house guests, Mrs. Charles Walke Kitterman, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Wilkins, of Lynchburg, Va.

The entire lower floor of the house was elaborately decorated with flowers and palms, and softly lighted with shaded lamps.

Dainty ices were served throughout the evening, and Mrs. Charles E. Friend presided at the punch table. Dancing added greatly to the pleasure of guests, among whom were Mrs. Kitterman, Misses Wilkins, Natalie Noblett, Elsie Edmunds, Janie Wall, Bertie McAdams, Alice Dorch, Norma Rose, Annie Hobgood, Cora Lee, Fanny and Willy O'burn, Ida Hite, Julia Elam, Miss Bray and Miss Thomas; Messrs. VENABLE—DABNEY.

Pretty Wedding Solemnized in Charlottesville, Va.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHATEAUVILLE, Va., September 8.—A pretty autumn marriage of considerable interest in local social circles was that of Miss Elizabeth Dabney, of Charlottesville, to Mr. Robert Henry Venable, of the University of Virginia.

The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, the celebrant being the Rev. Harry B. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, this city. The parlors of the residence were handsomely decorated with growing plants, the color scheme being green and white. Dozens of candles added beauty to the scene.

The bride was Miss Elizabeth Dabney, daughter of Mr. Robert Henry Venable, of Suffolk, Va., while the bridegroom was Mr. Robert Henry Venable, of the University of Virginia.

The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Mary Dabney, and her sister, Miss Sue Dabney, who acted as maids of honor. The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Mary Dabney, and her sister, Miss Sue Dabney, who acted as maids of honor.

Gates, of Lunenburg Courthouse, in a white Rajah princess, presided at the piano and rendered the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the bridal party entered, and Mendelssohn as a recessional.

The ushers, Messrs. W. T. and J. L. Wilson, brothers of the bride, entered first, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Florence Wilson the bride's sister, and Miss Mattie Coard, of Accomac, wearing gowns of white silk. The bride came in escorted by the groom. She was radiant in a charming costume of white crepe de chene, hand embroidered, princess effect, with tulle front, falling in graceful folds over a foundation of white tulle, which served to heighten her semi-brunette beauty. She wore no veil and carried no flowers, having as her only ornament a pearl brooch, gift of the groom. Her rich brown hair was gracefully and effectively arranged in high coils.

After the ceremony the wedding dress was exchanged for a tailored costume of mode cloth, tan gloves, and a charming little hat of mode and tan with touches of new blue, and then Mr. and Mrs. Barber were driven to Knoxville, where they boarded the south-bound train for a tour of Western North Carolina, taking in Asheville, Lake Toxaway and other points. After September 25th, they will be at home at Mt. Airy, N. C., where Mr. Barber holds the position of superintendent of light and water.

Among the guests from a distance were Misses Inez and Julia Barnes, of Richmond; Miss Coard, of Accomac; Misses Annie Faris, Grace Gregory and Mrs. Perry, of Chase City; Mr. W. T. Wilson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Dazey Baskett, of Henderson Ky.

Many beautiful presents of silver, china, cut-glass, mirrors, paintings, etc., will serve to beautify the new home.

OBJECTING BROTHER SHOOT

Charles Cherry Didn't Like Hutchison's Attention to His Sister.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, Va., September 8.—In the Portsmouth Police Court this morning the case of Herbert Hutchison, charged with shooting at Charles Cherry, while in a jealous rage, was continued until to-morrow, in order to secure other evidence.

The affair occurred late last night near the Cherry home. Hutchison was paying attention to Miss Cherry, sister of the young man, and the brother objected. Last night in the absence of the brother, Hutchison visited the home. Cherry found him there, a quarrel occurred and the shooting followed.

Both men it is declared, used pistols, and the question is, who started the fusillade. It is believed that Hutchison was the first to use a gun.

The case was continued until to-morrow, in order to secure other evidence.
